

CRITERIA FOR THE AWARD OF RESPECT

DEMONSTRATIONS OF EXCELLENCE IN THE FOUR GUIDING PRINCIPLES OF RESPECT

PRINCIPLE I

Respect for Self

The Nominee has demonstrated excellence in self-care by taking care of themselves Physically, Mentally, Emotionally, Morally and Financially.

PRINCIPLE II

Respect for Others

The Nominee has demonstrated excellence in their empathy towards others regardless of differences. They exercise exceptional listening skills.

PRINCIPLE III

Respect for the Environment

The Nominee has demonstrated exceptional care for their physical environment by consistently seeking to maintain or improve it.

The Nominee has demonstrated exceptional and consistent concern on ways to improve the social climate of their environment.

PRINCIPLE IV

Respect for the Process

The Nominee demonstrates an understanding in the exercise of Patience, Discipline and Focus needed as a part of the necessary process to successfully complete any assignment.